Dear Mr White,

Law Society Mediators Panel 2016-17

I am pleased to advise that you have been automatically appointed to the Law Society Mediators Panel 2016-17 on the basis that you hold National Mediator Accreditation through the Law Society of NSW.

I confirm that your appointment is valid until 31 December 2017.

All mediators appointed to the Panel will have their name included in the ADR Practitioners List on the Law Society website for the duration of the appointment. Mediators on the Panel may be asked to mediate in various matters, including Presidential appointments pursuant to a court order or contractual provision, as well as in matters referred under the Law Society Mediation Program. However, as the number of disputes referred to the Law Society varies, you will appreciate that it is not possible to predict when or if a particular referral will be made.

In the event that your National Accreditation lapses during the period of appointment to the Panel, you will be required to renew your National Accreditation (within 30 days from the date of expiry). Failure to do so, or failure to comply with any other requirement under the Selection Criteria, could result in your removal from the Panel.

If you have any questions in relation to this letter, please contact Gaby Carney, Director, Policy and Practice, on (02) 9926 0256.

Yours sincerely,

John F Eades
President
